

Rule No. 15
MAIN EXTENSIONS

A. General Provisions and Definitions

7. Assignment of Main Extension Contracts

Any contract entered into under Sections B and C of this rule, or under similar provisions of former rules, may be assigned, after settlement of adjusted construction costs, after written notice to the utility by the holder of said contract as shown by the utility's records. Such assignment shall apply only to those refunds which become due more than thirty days after the date of receipt by the utility of the notice of assignment. The utility shall not be required to make any one refund payment under such contract to more than a single assignee.

8. Interpretations and Deviations

In case of disagreement or dispute regarding the application of any provision of this rule, or in circumstances where the application of this rule appears unreasonable to either party, the utility, applicant or applicants may refer the matter to the Commission for determination.

B. Extensions to Serve Individuals

1. Payment

Extensions of water mains to serve new individual customers shall be paid for and contributed to the utility by the individual customer requesting the main extension. Calculation of payment shall be on the basis of a main not in excess of 6-inches in diameter, except where a larger main is required by the special needs of the new customer. The utility shall be responsible for installing and paying for service pipes, meter boxes and meters to serve the new individual customer.

2. Refunds

If subsequent applications for water service are connected directly to the main extension contributed by the original individual customer, such subsequent applicants shall pay to the utility an amount equal to the cost of 100 feet of the original extension. Such amounts shall be immediately refunded by the
