

Rule No. 15
MAIN EXTENSIONS

B. Extensions to Serve Individuals

2. utility to the initial customer who originally paid for and contributed the main extension to the utility. Total payments to the initial customer by subsequent applicants for water service shall not exceed the original cost of the extension. No refunds shall be made after a period of ten years from the completion of the main extension.

C. Extensions to Serve Subdivisions, Tracts, Housing Projects, Industrial Developments, Commercial Buildings, or Shopping Centers

1. Advances

- a. Unless the procedure outlined in Section C.1.c. is followed, and applicant for a main extension to serve a new subdivision, tract, housing project, industrial development, commercial building, or shopping center shall be required to advance to the utility, before construction is commenced, the estimated reasonable cost of the extension to be actually installed, from the nearest utility facility at least equal in size or capacity to the main required to serve both the new customers and a reasonable estimate of the potential customers who might be served directly from the main extension. The costs of the extension shall include necessary service stubs or service pipes, fittings, gates and housing therefor, and meter boxes, but shall not include meters. To this shall be added the cost of fire hydrants when requested by the applicant for the main extension or required by public authority, whenever such hydrants are to become the property of the utility.
- b. If special facilities consisting of items not covered by Section C.1.a. are required for the service requested and, when such facilities to be installed will supply both the main extension and other parts of the utility's system, at least 50 percent of the design capacity (in gallons, gpm, or other appropriate units) is required to supply the main extension, the cost of such special facilities may be included in the advance, subject to refund, as hereinafter provided, along with refunds of the advance of the cost of the extension facilities described in Section C.1.a. above.
